The exportations of silver, in fact, have been heavy for some time past. The exporters of gold might turn their gold over to the importers and take the drafts of the latter, thus avoiding transportation charges and insurance both coming and going. but the bond syndicate agreement precludes such an arrangement. Any applicant for bonds who would take gold from the Sub-Treasury and deliver it to the specie dealers would be shut out of the syndicate by its managers.

No report from the Finance Committee on the House Bond bill is expected before next Tuesday, and until its report is handed in, at least, the President will do nothing toward selling bonds. For this statement there is the very best authority. He may even wait for the Senate to dispose of the Finance Committee's report. December 31 sent to Hamilton Fish, Speaker of the Assembly, the following letter:

Dear Sir: The Chamber of Commerce some time since appointed the undersigned "Committee of citizens to consider the Excise and Sunday liquor question." It is certain that there will be introduced at Albany a great many bills relating to excise, and because of the extraordinary importance of this subject we respectfully suggest that it is desirable that the Excise Committee of the Assembly should be selected with more than usual care, and that only the most experienced, reliable and able men should be placed upon thits committee. We further venture to suggest that the committee should not be dominated either by the liquor men on the one hand or by the prohibition or extreme temperance element on the other. These are entitled to representation, but the committee should consist of men fairly representing public sentiment who will try to solve the excise question in the manner most conductive to the best interests of the State and all of its parts.

The police of Long Island City think they see some light through the mystery which surrounds the murder of William Lalor at No. 400 Jackson-ave. in that city. One thing which perplexes them just now is the difference in time in the stat ments of Mrz. Lalor, the mother of the murdered man. She says she informed, the police of the murder at 9 o'clock or earlier on Taursday morning. This is known to be untrue. It was 11:29 when she met Poleeman FROCKS FOR YOUNG GIRLS-BALL DRESS THE REV. A profit of ½ to ½ a cent a pound is therefore apparent on transactions or, to put it another way, there is a prefit of $500 to $1,000 on each $1,000,000 in gold experted. On the other hand, it is calculated that with demond exchange at 4.89½, gold can be imported if there is a premium of 1½ per cent (not cents) on it. Gold is held by the specie dealers at a premium of 1½ to 1½ per cent. There is accordingly a profit of $1,875 to $2,750 on each $1,000,000 of gold imported.

A few months ago he concluded to publish the life of that picturzeque Kansas statesman, Senator "Jim" Lane. He is now at the work, and has 200 pages out of 400 stereotyped. As an instance of his remarkable memory, he is compiling the life of Lane as he sets the type. He averages 8000 ems a day. Mr. Speer will have no assistance in the work, and he insists on setting all the type (composing as he goes along), and making up the forms for the book himself. He has two cases of type at the residence of his son, and he stands up before them eight hours every day. Mr. Speer was in the first batch of immigrants that came from New-England to Lawrence to oppose slavery in Kanses, and was conspicuous both personally and with his pen in the fight for a free State.

EMPIRE STATE SOLDIERS.

REPORT OF THE ADJUTANT-GENERAL-FIELD SERVICE RECOMMENDED.

Albany, Jan. 3.-Adjutant-General E. A. McAlpin has transmitted to Governor Morton his annual re-port for the year 1835. He estimates that there are in this State, subject to enrolment for military service, $90,000 men between the ages of eighteen a forty-five. The State could secure a force of sound men, subject to and fit for military duty, should necessity arise, of 59,000 men. Of this number probably not more than 150,000 have had military instruction and training in the service or in schools, and there may be added 50,000 more of veterans of the War of the Rebellion and ex-members of the National Guard above the age limit, but still able to do a certain amount of military service. The over two hundred millions of dollars for death officers and 12,362 enlisted men. In his report Gen-

ral McAipin says:

The present appropriation makes a further increase of National Guard organizations inadvisable, and yet an increase seems to be demanded by the imag. The General Government has an inadequate orce to man such coast defences as there are, and a still less adequate force to man what there ought o to. It should, therefore, seem pundent for the state to examize at least one regiment of heavy prilicey, with a view to assist the General Government in manning the defences of New-York varior. To do so requires, however, a decided addition to the present annual appropriation made for The following $200,000,000 periods in the history of Insurance in Force. In 1868 the insurance in force | State amounted to $222.378.427.
Total Income. In 1874 the total income of The Mutual Life had reached $238,762,878.40.

Mutual Life had reached $198,762,874.50.

Total Pushursements—In 1881 the total disbursements, from organization in 1812, were $297,520,332.12.

Total Payments to Policy-Holders—In 1883 the asgregate of the payments to policy-holders was $126,839,325.56.

When the Assets Reached the Mark—In 1894 the special statement of $301,638,432.59.

Posith Claims and Matured Endowments—On No.

I also recommend that, instead of the present double-breasted dress coat, a single-breasted coat be adopted.

I submit for your consideration the propriety of putting the whole National Guard is camp or on field duty each year. A tour of such duty every two years, while its benefits are great, is insufficient to maintain the high standard the military forces of the State have attained.

The camp of instruction has been in operation since 1822 and has tally answered the purpose and expectations for which it was established. Yet it affords no opportunity of instruction in some infligary matters of the greatest importance, and it is believed that the time has now arrived when a step in advance may—in fact, should be taken. This step is service in the field, the command being, so to speak, thrown on its own resources. At the camp of instruction everything is prepared before hand for the troops, so that practically fiely only move from one to another ready-made, furnished house. Pield service, on the contrary, requires the command to transport fiself and equipments to the location where its house is to be erected to build and furnish the latter and go to housekeeping. Guard mounting, drill and parale can be performed here as well as at the camp of instruction, and, in addition to these, advance and rear guard and outpost duty, military exercises of great importance. New batteries are needed for the 1st Bauery, of New-york City; 23d Separate Company, at Rudson; the 26th and 27th Separate Company, at Whitehall, the 6th spatate Company, at Whitehall, the 6th Separate Company, at Whitehall, the 6th spatate Company, at Oxdensburg; the 6th Regiment, at New-York City, the 4th Regiment, at Brooklyn, should be enlarged.

I consider the work of the Signal Corps of so much importance that, to encourage it, I deem it advisable and destrable that it should have a regresentative on the staff of the Governor, and that officers of the corps.
